Information:

The LED advertising wall is a lightweight, backlit promotional tool, ideal for trade fairs, conferences or corporate spaces. Thanks to its backlighting, it attracts attention and provides excellent visibility. The structure is foldable, easy to assemble and portable, and graphics can be replaced without tools, allowing you to update your message quickly. Available in sizes from 100x150 cm to 300x250 cm, in single-sided or double-sided versions. In addition, we offer the possibility to produce a textile banner in a matching size. Sublimation or latex printing guarantees vibrant colours and clear details, making the LED textile wall ideal for indoor and outdoor use.
