Information:

The MD354 skirting board is designed for an aesthetic finish at the junction of walls and floors. Its minimalist profile features a distinctive cut in the center. Made from PolyForce material, it is resistant to moisture and UV radiation—ensuring it won't yellow, crack, or warp over time. The ScratchShield technology enhances its resistance to scratches and mechanical damage. It is coated with a smoothing primer that makes painting easier. Installation is simple with the use of mounting adhesive, without the need for specialized tools.
