Information:

The Premium MD005P skirting board is a functional profile designed to elegantly finish the junction between walls and floors. It allows for quick installation without the need to remove old baseboards. Made from PolyForce material, it offers dimensional stability and moisture resistance, preventing cracks at the joints. The ScratchShield® technology enhances the surface durability against scratches. Its minimalist design, featuring gentle rounding and a satin-smooth finish, complements various interior décor styles. This product is moisture-resistant, making it suitable for kitchens and bathrooms.
