Information:

The flexible skirting board MD234F is designed for a stylish finish at the junction of walls and floors, especially on surfaces with irregular shapes. Its minimalist profile with rounded edges complements both modern and classic decor. Made from a durable material that is resistant to moisture, UV radiation, and mechanical damage, it prevents yellowing, cracking, and warping. This skirting board also allows for the concealment of cables and expansion joints. It can be installed using mounting adhesive and is paintable with solvent-free paints.
