Referention number: MD356F

Information:

The flexible skirting board MD356F allows for an aesthetically pleasing finish at the junction between the wall and floor, as well as concealing wires and expansion gaps. Thanks to its FLEX properties, it adapts to curved surfaces without the risk of cracking. Made from moisture-resistant material, UV-resistant, and durable against minor mechanical damage, it is suitable for various types of interiors, including bathrooms and kitchens. Installation is carried out using recommended mounting adhesive. After installation, the skirting board can be painted with water-based paint without solvents.
