Information:

The MDB102 ceiling strip is designed for decorative finishing at the junction of walls and ceilings in classic arrangements. The profile features precise embellishments and is made from lightweight ProFoam material, allowing for deep details that mimic plaster moldings. It is waterproof and resistant to changing humidity conditions, making it suitable for bathrooms and kitchens. The strip is compatible with water-based paints, enabling color matching to suit your interior. Installation is simple—just cut to size and adhere it to the surface.
