Referention number: MDB112

Information:

The MDB112 ceiling strip is a finishing element featuring a symmetrical profile with subtle milling on both sides. Made from lightweight and durable ProFoam material, it offers high resistance to moisture and UV radiation. It does not absorb water, preventing deformation and enhancing longevity. The factory-applied primer makes painting easier and ensures a uniform surface. It is available in a Flex version, allowing installation on curved walls and uneven surfaces. Perfect for concealing imperfections at the junction of the wall and ceiling. Installation is done using mounting adhesive.
