Information:

The MDB123 corner moulding is designed for the aesthetic finishing of wall corners. Its decorative profile features subtle milling and reliefs, making it suitable for both classic and modern interiors. Made from ProFoam material, it is resistant to moisture and UV radiation—meaning it does not absorb water, does not warp, and does not fade when exposed to light. It comes with a factory-applied primer layer that allows for painting with water-based paints. Installation requires no specialized tools; adhesive mounting is recommended.
