Manufacturer: Klemp

Referention number: MDB185

Information:

The MDB185 ceiling strip provides an elegant connection between the wall and ceiling, effectively concealing any unevenness and imperfections. The profile features decorative reliefs and a milled base, making it suitable for both classic and modern interiors. Made from a lightweight and waterproof ProFoam material, it is resistant to UV radiation and will not change color under sunlight. Covered with a base coat for a smooth surface, it facilitates easy painting with water-based paints. The installation of the MDB185 strip is quick and does not require specialized tools – adhesive application is recommended.
