Information:

The Flex MD145F ceiling strip is an flexible decorative profile designed for installation on walls with irregular shapes. Its minimalist symmetrical geometry, featuring subtle grooves, complements both classic and modern interiors. Made from flexible material that is resistant to moisture and UV radiation, the strip should be painted with solvent-free paint after installation. With compact dimensions (200 x 6 x 6 cm), it is suitable for rooms with standard ceiling heights. It can be mounted using construction adhesive, without the need for specialized tools.
