Information:

Panels from the Velutto collection combine elegance with modern design. They feature a silky touch semi-matte finish that provides a subtle smoothness to the touch. Available in three colors - Shadow Grey, Misty Grey, and Dessert Beige - they perfectly align with current interior design trends. The most distinctive feature of the collection is the unique shape of the slats in the form of wide waves, adding a one-of-a-kind character to any space. The wavy patterns offer an original alternative to traditional straight slats, bringing a dynamic yet subtle decorative effect to interiors.
